

Thank you for your interest in a career with Motorists Insurance Group and BrickStreet Insurance. We are improving our current recruiting processes and tools and are not able to accept new applications at this time. We encourage you to review our open positions and upload your resume on Tuesday, May 28, when our new platform is available. Thank you for your patience.

Note for existing candidates: If you previously submitted a resume, it is being considered, and you do not need to take additional action.
